

Careers at Hazel Cottage

Careers Lead: Mrs Hannah Leach

	Autumn 1 Let's Try New Things	Autumn 2 People Who Help Us	Spring 1 Helping and Working Together	Spring 2 Learning and Growing	Summer 1 I Can Be...	Summer 2 My World, My Community
Early Years	• Explore different toys, objects and activities. • Show interest in something new. • Reach towards or choose something they would like to explore. • Try an activity with support from an adult. • Join in with simple pretend play. • Explore different job-related toys and props. • Explore dressing up in different work clothes. • Copy an adult doing a simple task. • Show when they have enjoyed or completed something. • Celebrate their own achievements with an adult. • Begin to understand that adults can help them.	• Notice familiar adults who help them. • Recognise familiar people who help at school. • Explore different uniforms and equipment. • Explore photographs and objects linked to different jobs. • Watch adults carrying out different jobs. • Join in with simple role play about people who help us. • Explore tools and equipment used by different workers. • Begin to understand that different people have different jobs. • Communicate when they need help. • Respond to a familiar adult offering help. • Explore visitors and listen or respond to them talking about their job.	• Join an adult in a simple shared activity. • Take part in a simple classroom job. • Help to tidy away toys and equipment. • Carry or pass an object to an adult. • Help with simple everyday tasks. • Copy an adult completing a familiar task. • Take turns with an adult during an activity. • Work alongside another child. • Show enjoyment when helping others. • Recognise when they have helped someone. • Explore simple jobs around the home and school. • Begin to understand that people work together to get things done.	• Explore something they have not tried before. • Show interest in learning something new. • Repeat an activity they enjoy. • Begin to persist with an activity with adult support. • Notice when they have completed something. • Celebrate their achievements. • Explore their own likes and dislikes. • Make simple choices about activities. • Communicate when they need help. • Begin to recognise familiar things they can do independently. • Develop confidence in trying again. • Show pride or enjoyment when they achieve something.	• Explore different people and jobs through play. • Dress up as different people who work. • Use props linked to different jobs. • Explore simple job-related role play. • Watch adults carrying out different jobs. • Match familiar people to their jobs. • Explore what different people do to help others. • Choose a job or role they would like to pretend to be. • Use sounds, gestures, symbols or words to communicate their choices. • Explore different places where people work. • Begin to imagine themselves doing different jobs. • Show interest in what they might like to do when they grow up.	• Explore the different places around school. • Explore places in their local community. • Notice people who help in their community. • Recognise familiar community helpers. • Explore shops, parks, schools and other familiar places. • Explore different ways people travel to work. • Explore jobs people do indoors and outdoors. • Notice different vehicles used by people at work. • Explore simple tools and equipment used by workers. • Join in with community-based role play. • Recognise familiar places and people. • Begin to understand that people have different roles in their community.

Careers at Hazel Cottage

Careers Lead: Mrs Hannah Leach

	Autumn 1 • Making things happen	Autumn 2 • My future and me	Spring 1 • Happy, healthy and balanced	Spring 2 • Learning and Growing	Summer 1 • What could I be?	Summer 2 • Me and the wider world
KS1	- Identifying new jobs that are just coming into being - being able to describe what their needs are - choosing what they want to achieve and the way they go about it - being aware of how to communicate with co-workers and customers in work settings - being able to make a positive contribution in group play or teamwork based on a business activity - thinking about questions they would like to ask a visitor about their job	- recognising that they and other people like to choose the work they do - looking forward to what they are going to learn next - describing a goal or target they are working towards - being proactive about trying different approaches to solving challenges - recognising that decisions can have unexpected consequences	- recognising the contribution they make to the work that is done in the home - being aware of what volunteers do and how they can be a volunteer - exploring the rewards they would like to get from paid work - being aware that overwork is harmful to people's health - recognising how they can help keep themselves safe at school - exploring what happens in the first few days when people start work - being aware that they and others can play a part in helping to ensure that people are treated well at work - being aware of how money can be earned	- Being confident to request help - recognising their successes in learning - being willing to challenge themselves - exploring what they have experienced and achieved - feeling positive about people whose identities and backgrounds are different to theirs	- being aware that jobs are made up of tasks - exploring what people do whose jobs involve caring for children and keeping them safe - being able to give examples of jobs in different sectors - being able to explain their views about similarities and differences between jobs - investigating similarities and differences between men's and women's work clothes - being able to explain what they are gaining from the subjects and topics they are learning about	- being aware of how work is portrayed differently in different stories - recognising that the way that work is shown is not always accurate/ reliable - exploring how working life is changing for people now being aware of how scientific and technological aids help people do their work - exploring work practices in the school environment that promote sustainability - exploring the jobs that people do to help each other
KS2	- Identifying possible new jobs that might be needed in the future - responding to trusted adults who can help them identify their needs - reflecting on what they achieved and what they would do differently or better next time - exploring how people relate to each other in work settings - being able to take on different work-related roles in group play	- being aware that choice and opportunity make careers possible - recognising their achievement when they have learnt something new even if they found it difficult initially - making a step-by-step plan to enable them to achieve something they would like to be able to do - being aware that having backup plans can help overcome the disappointment or bring a	- being able to explain the idea of division of labour with reference to the work that is done in the home - being aware of what charities do and how they can be a charity worker - recognising that people seek different rewards when considering paid work that they'd like to do - being aware that imbalances between people's life and work affects their wellbeing	- being able to explain how they acted on help - recognising what they want to learn next and when they are successful - being willing to take on challenges that help them to grow - recording and commenting on what they have experienced and achieved - relating to people whose identities and backgrounds are different to theirs	- being able to explain what tasks they would like and like least about particular jobs - finding out about the qualities and skills needed to do a caring job - being able to design a scheme for classifying a set of jobs - being able to explain what interests them about particular jobs exploring the connection between uniforms and status - recognising that the subjects and topics that they take further can	- being aware of what the author is encouraging them to think about when work is a theme in a story - being able to consider if the information they have found is accurate/reliable - being aware of trends that hint at how working life may change for them by the time they embark on their careers - exploring the benefits and possible drawbacks of scientific and technological developments

Careers at Hazel Cottage

Careers Lead: Mrs Hannah Leach

	- or teamwork, including as leader when required - explaining what they found out from a visitor about setting up their own businesses	- different reward if their main plan does not work out - being able to weigh up the pros and cons of a choice they are thinking of making	- recognising what they can do to help keep themselves and others safe at school - being aware that people's work needs change during their lives - recognising unfair barriers to opportunity and being willing to challenge them - being able to make decisions about saving, spending and budgeting		lead to qualifications and making progress in their careers	- that affect how people do their work - exploring jobs and ways of working that help to protect the environment - exploring what they and others can do to prevent people having to do harmful work
	Autumn 1 • 'Create Opportunities'	Autumn 2 • 'Manage Career'	Spring 1 • 'Balance life and work'	Spring 2 • 'Grow throughout life'	Summer 1 • 'Explore possibilities'	Summer 2 • 'See the big picture'
KS3	- developing friendships and relationships with others - being aware that it is important to take initiative in their learning and life - being aware that building a career will require them to be imaginative and flexible - developing the ability to communicate their needs and wants - being able to identify a role model and being aware of the value of leadership - being aware of the concept of entrepreneurialism and self-employment	- being aware that career describes their journey through life, learning and work - looking forward to the future - imagining a range of possibilities for themselves in their career - being aware that different jobs and careers bring different challenges and rewards - managing the transition into secondary school and preparing for choosing their GCSEs - learning from setbacks and challenges	- being aware of the concept of work-life balance - being aware that physical and mental wellbeing are important - being aware of money and that individuals and families have to actively manage their finances - being aware of the ways that they can be involved in their family and community - being aware of different life stages and life roles - being aware of rights and responsibilities in the workplace and in society - recognising the injustices caused by prejudice, stereotypes and discrimination in learning and workplaces	- being aware of the sources of help and support available and responding positively to feedback - being aware that learning, skills and qualifications are important for career - being willing to challenge themselves and try new things - recording achievements - being aware of heritage, identity and values	- being aware of the range of possible jobs - identifying common sources of information about the labour market education system - being aware of the main learning pathways (e.g. university, college and apprenticeships) - being aware that many jobs require learning, skills and minimum qualifications - being aware of the range of different sectors and organisations where they can work - being aware of the range of ways that organisations undertake recruitment and selection	- being aware of a range of different media, information sources and viewpoints - being aware that there are trends in local and national labour markets - being aware that trends in technology and science have implications for career - being aware of the relationship between career and the natural environment - being aware of the relationship between career, community and society - being aware of the relationship between career, politics and the economy

Careers at Hazel Cottage

Careers Lead: Mrs Hannah Leach

KS4	- developing friendships and relationships and reflecting on their relationship to their career - starting to take responsibility for making things happen in their career - being able to reflect on and change their career ideas and the strategies that they are pursuing to achieve them - being willing to speak up for themselves and others - being able to discuss roles models and reflect on leadership - researching entrepreneurialism and self-employment	- recognising the different ways in which people talk about career and reflecting on its meaning to them - building their confidence and optimism about their future - making plans and developing a pathway into their future - considering the risks and rewards associated with different pathways and careers - taking steps to achieve in their GCSEs and make a decision about their post-16 pathway - thinking about how they deal with and learn from challenges and setbacks	- reflecting on the different ways in which people balance their work and life - reflecting on their physical and mental wellbeing and considering how they can improve these - recognising the role that money and finances will play, in the decisions that they make and, in their life and career - recognising the role that they play in their family and community and considering how that might shape their career - considering how they want to move through different life stages and manage different life roles - developing knowledge of rights and responsibilities in the workplace and in society - identifying what they can do, individually and with others, to challenge prejudice, stereotyping and discrimination in learning and workplaces	- responding positively to help, support and feedback - positively engaging in learning and taking action to achieve good outcomes - recognising the value of challenging themselves and trying new things - reflecting on and recording achievements, experiences and learning - considering what learning pathway they should pursue next - reflecting on their heritage, identity and values	- considering what jobs and roles are interesting - researching the labour market and the education system - recognising the main learning pathways and considering which one they want to follow and how they will access and succeed in it - researching the learning and qualification requirements for jobs and careers that they are interested in - researching the range of workplaces and what it is like to work there - researching how recruitment and selection processes work and what they need to do to succeed in them	- evaluating different media, information sources and viewpoints - exploring local and national labour market trends - exploring trends in technology and science - exploring the relationship between career and the environment - exploring the relationship between career, community and society - exploring the relationship between career, politics and the economy
KS5	- building and maintaining relationships and networks within and beyond the school - being proactive about their life, learning and career - being creative and agile as they develop their career pathway - representing themselves and others - acting as a leader, role model or example to others - considering entrepreneurialism and self-employment as a career pathway	- being able to describe the concept of career and say what it means to them - building their confidence and optimism about their future and acting on it - actively planning, prioritising and setting targets for their future - considering the risks and rewards of different pathways and career and deciding between them	- planning for the kind of balance of work and life that they want - taking action to improve their physical and mental wellbeing - beginning to manage their own money and plan their finances (e.g. thinking about student loans) - actively shaping their involvement in their family and community as part of their career planning	- responding positively to help, support and feedback - positively engaging in learning and taking action to achieve good outcomes - recognising the value of challenging themselves and trying new things - reflecting on and recording achievements, experiences and learning - considering what learning pathway they should pursue next	- developing a clear direction of travel in their career and actively pursuing this - actively seeking out information on the labour market and education system to support their career - having a clear understanding of the learning pathways and qualifications that they will need to pursue their career - actively researching and reflecting on workplaces,	- evaluating different media, information sources and viewpoints and reflecting on the best way to get information for their career - exploring and responding to local and national labour market trends - exploring and responding to trends in technology and science

Careers at Hazel Cottage

Careers Lead: Mrs Hannah Leach

		- managing the transition into the post-16 learning context and preparing for post-18 transitions - being proactive about being resilient and learning from setbacks	- planning for different life stages and considering the different life roles that they want to play - being aware of their role in ensuring rights and responsibilities in the workplace and in society - taking action to challenge prejudice, stereotypes and discrimination in learning and workplaces when they encounter them	reflecting on their heritage, identity and values	workplace culture and expectations analysing and preparing for recruitment and selection processes	- exploring and responding to the relationship between career and the environment - exploring and responding to the relationship between career, community and society - exploring and responding to the relationship between career, politics and the economy
Open Award units	Understanding professional relationships (EL2) Volunteering (EL2) Anger management (EL2) Personal Action Planning (EL2) Building confidence and self-esteem (EL2) Developing confidence working with animals (EL3) Food, Drink and cooking (EL3) Kitchen Hygiene (EL3) Hobbies (EL3)	Kitchen hygiene (EL 2 and 3) Health and Fitness (EL2) Using public Transport: Buses and Trains (EL2) E Safety (EL2) Dealing with Stress (EL2) Understanding a balanced diet (EL2) Prepare and plant an area (EL2) Developing a healthy lifestyle (EL3) Introduction to garden horticulture (EL3) Getting about safely (EL3) Know your local area (EL3)	Sex and relationships (EL2) Know your Local Area (EL2) Preparing for and taking part in an interview (EL2) Pet care (EL2) Understanding a work experience placement (EL3) Living in the community (EL3) Environmental issues (EL3) Volunteering (EL3) Understanding relationships (EL3)			